The Honorable Alejandro Mayorkas
Secretary
Department of Homeland Security
Washington, D.C. 20528

Dear Secretary Mayorkas:

We write to express our disgust with this administration’s complete failure to secure our border and enforce the rule of law, the effects of which are impacting communities and families across the country. President Biden’s decision to allow over 1.5 million “gotaways”¹ to enter the country without consequence is a blatant dereliction of duty, particularly because we know that this group of migrants who evade our border patrol agents often have criminal records and are potentially the most dangerous. Because of this administration’s policies, every state has become a border state, and every town has become a border town. But recently, Tennesseans have been hit the hardest.

Camilo Hurtado Campos was arrested on June 23, 2023, in Franklin, Tennessee, after restaurant workers discovered photos and videos on his phone of him raping and abusing unconscious children. Detectives have since found hundreds of videos and photos of Campos’ unconscionable abuse of at least 10 boys between the ages of 9 and 17 years old. In addition to those 10 boys, five other individuals have come forward to say that they too were victims of Campos’s decade of abuse. Perhaps most devastating of all, this horrific abuse was entirely preventable — police confirmed on July 12 that Campos is an illegal immigrant who should not have been in our country in the first place.² Indeed, if this administration had any interest in enforcing our nation’s laws, he wouldn’t have been. In a complete breakdown of the rule of law, Campos was allowed to remain in the country even though he has a criminal record, having previously been charged with public intoxication and three instances of driving without a license.³

Investigators believe that Campos, who has lived illegally in the Franklin area for a staggering 20 years without detection by law enforcement, would recruit children at school playgrounds under the guise that he was a soccer coach who wanted them to play on his team.⁴ He would then lure the children to his home, drug them, and rape them. The abuse and trauma that Campos inflicted on these children is unthinkable. Our children should feel safe in their communities, and parents should not have to worry about sexual predators on our playgrounds. All Americans should be able to trust that federal law enforcement is working to keep them safe.

While this administration has spent years defending its failed border policies as compassionate and humane, there is nothing compassionate about policies that allow a child sexual predator and serial rapist to remain in an American community undetected for more than two decades. The simple fact remains: if Camilo Campos had been arrested at any point in the past twenty years for his violation of federal law, these precious children would not have been subjected to his horrific abuse. Violence against children is one of the most heinous crimes imaginable, and Tennesseans deserve to know why the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) permitted this criminal to live in their community and abuse their children after entering the country illegally.

This administration must do more to protect our children and secure our southern border. Please respond to the following questions by July 24, 2023:

1. Was DHS aware that Camilo Campos was in the country illegally?
 - a. If so, when did the Department become aware of Campos's immigration status?
 - b. If so, please provide all documentation in the Department's possession, custody, or control related to Campos, his criminal record, and/or his immigration status.
 - c. If not, why was the Department unaware of Campos's immigration status?
2. Was Campos provided a Notice to Appear when he entered the country illegally?
 - a. If so, when was his court date and did he appear?
 - b. If not, why not?
3. Did the Department initiate any enforcement actions against Campos?
 - a. In responding to this question, please provide all documentation in the Department's possession, custody, or control related to any legal proceedings or enforcement actions—or decisions not to bring enforcement actions—against Campos.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this urgent matter.
